After Riya is kidnapped by Khalid who used to be Riya's friend, Nitya wants revenge from the fake Khalid and she kidnaps him, and tells him that she will kill him if he does not reveal the true identity of Khalid. Khalid, who does not know that the real Khalid is in Nitya's custody, decides to reveal the true identity of Khalid. But as soon as Khalid reveals, Riya runs away from him. Khalid asks where did Riya go and Nitya admits that she has kidnapped Riya. On the other hand, Riya, who is now angry with Khalid, denies that she was kidnapped, and pleads Nitya to release her. Nitya tells her that she will be killed if she is not freed. Then Riya has a dream where she sees that she is surrounded by Khans from her family and her father. She is also sure that there is a gold statue with a bracelet on it, and the dream ends with the message that she will not forget the past. Riya is then kidnapped by Khalid who takes her to his new home. The next day, Riya wakes up to find that she is chained to a pole. She tries to call Khalid, but he tells her that he will kill her. Khalid then tells Riya that she cannot stay alive, and hence she has to die.

Riya calls her father who is in another cell and tells him that she is alive and that Khalid has kidnapped her. But on the other hand, her father tells her that her aunt has changed the location of the gold statue with the bracelet to her house and that she must go there. Later, Riya is taken to her aunt's house. Her aunt tells her that she can live there, but she must be married to Khalid. A servant asks Riya to come with her. Riya is scared and so she runs away from her aunt's house. Riya sees Khalid and tries to fight him, but she is stabbed by his friend and he takes the bracelet off the statue. Khalid tries to kill Riya, but she kills him. Riya then runs away from the house and finds herself in the middle of a forest. She sees Khalid's friend, who is trying to save Khalid. The friend tells Riya that Khalid used to help him with some work. Riya then finds a village and goes to the village doctor. The doctor tells her that 82157476af
